

Income Eligibility Table

Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP)

Effective: March 7th, 2025: Based on 150% of the US Dept. of 2025 Health and Human Services Poverty Guidelines.

Use total gross income – before taxes and deductions - of ALL household members.

Every 60+ year-old household member is eligible to receive their own monthly food package.

Household Size	Yearly	Monthly	Weekly
1	$23,475	$1,957	$452
2	31,725	2,644	611
3	39,975	3,332	769
4	48,225	4,019	928
5	56,475	4,707	1,087
6	64,725	5,394	1,245
7	72,975	6,082	1,404
8	81,225	6,769	1,563
Each additional household member	8,250	688	159

Adjunctive Eligibility: an applicant can be adjunctively eligible if they provide proof/documentation that they are certified and fully eligible for the following Federal programs:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) known as FoodShare in Wisconsin.
- Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Low Income Subsidy Program
- Medicare Savings Programs.

Applicants who are adjunctively income eligible, as set forth in the above section, shall not be subject to the income limits established.

For additional income screening information see the Wisconsin CSFP Daily Operations Guide. Pursuant to program regulations, the 2025 income guidelines are effective upon receipt from the USDA and will remain in effect until notification of the income guidelines for 2026.

To calculate monthly income

Weekly	Multiply by 4.3
Bi-weekly (every 2 weeks)	Multiply by 2.15
Semi-monthly (2 per month)	Multiply by 2
Lump sums	Divide by 12

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.